

THE WEEKLY MARKET INTELLIGENCE NEWSLETTER

A done-for-you weekly email your clients actually read — researched, designed, compliance-screened, and published under your brand. You send a topic and your listings. We handle everything else.

YOUR WEEKLY MARKET INTELLIGENCE NEWSLETTER — DONE FOR YOU

One topic in. A finished, compliant market-intelligence package out — every week.

WHAT YOUR AUDIENCE RECEIVES EVERY WEEK

This is not a template newsletter with recycled national content. Each week your list receives a researched market article in your voice (every figure sourced and listed), custom editorial artwork featuring you, your featured listings with verified links, your local market numbers, and a published web article and market dashboard carrying your brand — all delivered as a ready-to-send email for your platform, on your schedule.

Your newsletter is Fair Housing and compliance-screened every single week — before it ever reaches an inbox.

TWO WAYS TO RUN IT

MOST POPULAR

AUTOPILOT — MLS-CONNECTED

$1,297/month

- ✓ Everything in Essentials
- ✓ You send: a topic. That's it.
- ✓ We pull your active listings and sold data directly from your MLS
- ✓ Every listing link verified live before send
- ✓ Automatic price-reduction and new-construction badges
- ✓ Community-by-community inventory tracking
- ✓ Requires MLS data access in your market

One-time setup: $1,500. Brand configuration, community list, likeness photo session for your custom artwork, legal footer setup with your brokerage, and first-issue calibration. Most clients send their first issue within one week of kickoff.

THE WEEKLY RHYTHM

WHO	DOES WHAT
You (5–10 minutes)	Reply to one email: this week's topic (or "you pick"), the properties you want highlighted, and anything local worth mentioning.
Our team	Two independent research passes with every claim sourced; article written in your voice; custom hero artwork; email, article page and dashboard built under your brand; every link checked live.
Compliance screen	An independent Fair Housing and claims review of the finished package — language, imagery, and sourcing — before anything is released to you.
You (2 minutes)	Upload the finished email to your platform and hit send — or we schedule it with you. Two subject lines and a preheader are included, ready to paste.

WHAT MAKES IT DIFFERENT

It reads like research, not promotion. Every issue is built like an investment-grade market briefing: sourced figures, an honest counterpoint, and a local-impact section for your core market. Your sphere learns to open it because it tells them something true.

It compounds. Every issue adds a permanent article page and dashboard to your web presence — a growing, searchable archive of your market expertise that works long after the send.

It is engineered to be opened. Rotating segments (Listing of the Week, By the Numbers, Myth vs. Market, a graded prediction scoreboard), a personal P.S., and reply prompts that strengthen your deliverability week over week.

GOOD-FIT CHECKLIST

This service is built for agents and teams who: have a database worth nurturing (300+ contacts), work a definable market or community set, want to be seen as the market authority rather than the loudest advertiser, and can commit 10 minutes a week. If that is you, the math is simple: one transaction sourced from your newsletter pays for years of it.

TERMS IN PLAIN ENGLISH

Month-to-month after setup; cancel anytime with 14 days' notice. Information you supply (listings, local numbers) is published as provided. Your brokerage's required legal language appears on every asset, and AI assistance is disclosed on every issue. We screen every issue for Fair Housing compliance; final send approval is always yours.
