

• PARTNERSHIP PROPOSAL — JUNE 2026

Bogen.ai x Carrie McCormick

Three systems we'd build for Carrie McCormick — starting with the one you've already seen

Carrie — after Chicago on June 3, we didn't send a deck. Eytan and I went home and built your form. ListingStory is live. Here's the full plan: start with the tool you've already touched, let it earn its keep, and grow into the systems that scale you — without ever breaking "when you hire Carrie, you get Carrie."

CHICAGO LUXURY BROKER

PERSON IT ALL RUNS THROUGH

— WHAT WE HEARD

What's actually capping the business — ranked

You've built the city's #1 solo luxury practice. The ceiling isn't demand — it's that everything runs through one person. These are the leverage points, in order, and every system below ladders into this list.

The solo ceiling — every listing runs through you

01

The intake, the copy, the follow-up, the database, the phone. Your promise is your moat and your ceiling at the same time.

TIME = LISTINGS

| "When you hire Carrie, you get Carrie."

Seller intake on JotForm

02

A generic form that collects answers and stops there — no story, no brand, nothing that wins you the pitch in the room.

+WIN RATE

Listing copy written by hand

03

Every description drafted from scratch, listing by listing — hours that only you can give, on work a system can carry.

HOURS BACK

Twenty years of clients, scattered

04

$3.5B of relationships living across inboxes, contacts, and memory. The repeat and referral business is there — it's just not organized to work for you.

+REPEAT / REFERRAL

05

+CAPTURED LEADS

Calls caught only when you're free

At your price point a missed call is a missed listing. After-hours inbound goes to voicemail and goes cold.

What we won't pitch you

We won't tell you how to sell luxury real estate. You've forgotten more about that than any consultant will ever know. We're not here to flatten what works — your business works. We build the AI scaffolding around what you already do better than anyone, so the only thing left on your plate is the part only Carrie can do.

— THE PATH

One proof. Then it builds itself.

You start with the tool you've already seen working — run as a 90-day proof. As it earns its place, the Stack comes online around it, one module at a time, on your go-ahead. You never buy what you haven't watched work first.

STAGE 01 · LIVE NOW — THE PROOF

ListingStory

Your branded seller-intake app that writes the listing story on submit

Already built, branded in your colors, carrying your line — "every home has a story and I bring it to life." A seller fills it out; it writes the listing the moment they submit.

- Custom-branded form — unlimited submissions, no JotForm caps
- AI Property Story every submission — MLS remarks + IG caption, in your voice
- Submissions dashboard + a real database underneath
- Hosting, updates, support — zero tech burden on you

INVESTMENT

$1,250/mo · 90-day proof

+ $1,500 build (credited to annual)

OUTCOME (DAYS, NOT MONTHS)

Live in your listings this week

Win the pitch · lose the busywork

One won listing pays for the year

Why it's first: it's already built and you've touched it. The proof, not a promise. Lowest risk, fastest yes.

STAGE 02 · ROLLS IN — MONTHS 2-6

The Stack

Three modules that come online around ListingStory, on the same data spine

Once the proof has earned it, the Stack builds itself in around ListingStory — each module riding the data it's already collecting.

- AI Voicemail Operator — answers & qualifies, 24/7, never misses a lead
- Database / CRM — your 20-year sphere, finally organized and working
- Newsletter Engine — your property stories become listing emails automatically

INVESTMENT

$3,000/mo · all three

scoping begins Day 60; extras priced separately

OUTCOME

One missed $2.5M call ≈
$60K — caught
Your sphere, reactivated
Your stories, working while you sleep

How it rolls in: we scope at Day 60 and add modules on your go-ahead — the $1,250 proof escalates into the Stack as each piece goes live. You approve every step.

STAGE 03 · THE DESTINATION — MONTH 6+

Full Partnership

Edmund + Eytan operate everything, end to end, plus advisory

When the systems are carrying real weight, we run all of it for you — and Edmund stays at the table on the bigger questions.

- We operate all four systems — built, run, optimized
- Bi-weekly strategy sessions with Edmund — growth, brand, your next chapter
- Eytan on call — priority build queue + ongoing automation
- Monthly performance reporting

INVESTMENT

$7,500/mo

~$90K/year, fully managed

OUTCOME

Two senior operators for less than one ops hire — without breaking your solo brand

Why last: only when the systems carry real weight. Earned, not asked for cold.

The full picture — where this goes

At maturity, Bogen.ai is your outsourced AI operations team: ListingStory, an AI voicemail operator, your full client database, and an automated newsletter — built, run, and optimized by Edmund and Eytan at $7,500/month (~$90K/year), still less than the single ops hire that would quietly break "when you hire Carrie, you get Carrie." You don't start there. You start with a $1,250 proof — and it builds itself from there.

— WHO WE'RE BUILDING FOR

Elite fundamentals and a software gap

You don't need a tech transformation. You need the AI scaffolding that scales you without diluting the personal touch that made you #1. That's the posture — build around what you do brilliantly.
